Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Journal of the Marine Biological Association of the United Kingdom, Vol. 4 The Journal of our Association cannot be allowed to appear without a few words in memory of our first President, the great naturalist and leader of Science, whom we all mourn. Huxley's studies in marine biology, and his position as a Government official, as well as his keen, practical common-sense, made his selection as a member of two Government Commissions on Fisheries (in 1863 and again in 1883) very appropriate. He did valuable work on those Commissions, and in 1881 was appointed, by Sir William Harcourt, to be Inspector of Salmon Fisheries. In 1883 he took an active part in the work of the International Fisheries Exhibition, and emphasized in an address given there, the fact that, whilst civilized man had brought all the resources of science to bear on the harvest of the land, little or nothing had been done in the same spirit for the harvest of the sea. When, in 1884, the movement was set on foot for the foundation of the Marine Biological Association, Huxley, as President of the Royal Society, took the chair at the important meeting in the rooms of that Society, at which the Association was founded, and subsequently he consented to be the first President of the Association. With that thoroughness and conscientiousness which marked all his work, our President, though no longer in full health and vigour, attended regularly the meetings of the Council, and gave the most careful attention to the very onerous business which had to be discharged in the early days of the organization of the Association, and the building...
