Writing Poetry with Children

By Jo Ellen Moore

Evan-Moor Educational Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 96 pages. Dimensions: 10.8in. x 8.4in. x 0.3in. Newly revised and expanded, Writing Poetry with Children makes it easy to teach these poetry forms: couplets, cinquain, haiku, limericks, shape poems, and acrostic poems. You get more than 30 reproducible writing forms to showcase poems and lots of ideas for interesting ways to display and share student poetry in grades 1-6. Each poetry lesson provides samples of the poetry form. Step-by-step lessons on three levels of difficulty are provided: Level 1-students are guided through all the steps to write a poem Lever 2-students are guided through the first few steps and then complete the poem independently Level 3-students write independently, following the guides on a How to chart and a reproducible step-by-step form. This three-level approach gives teachers the versatility to meet any students needs. Subjects for poems include The Sun, Birds, Rain, A Clown, Bubbles, Kittens, Motorcycle, Cowboy, Space Alien, and many more to which students will readily relate. Ideas provided for displaying and sharing student poetry include display boards, charts and banners, a newsletter, a program for a poetry reading, and a portfolio - each with complete instructions and, where needed, reproducible...
