For the audio teachings, go to The Well Ministry at or invite Kristen Tschida to lead a Purity Pursuit retreat day at your church or youth event. The goal for the Purity Pursuit: For a generation of young people to discover the beauty of their sexuality, without compromising its purpose; to move from embarrassment over the call to purity to the boldness and courage it takes to stand in the face of cultural opposition; creating an open, healthy dialogue between parents and their children over the topic of sexual intimacy; and equipping them to make big decisions way in advance about not engaging in any sexual behavior until marriage. (Most pivotal choices are made during the ages of 11-15.) Because we live in a sexually charged culture, everywhere we turn, there are messages being sent that sell sex to us and our children. It has so permeated our culture that we don't even understand the number of messages we receive daily. I want to join the revolution of speaking about the truth of sex and challenging the culture's view, so that youth are empowered to walk in truth ~ to be consecrated to the Lord and follow His ways in love, passion, and the expression of sexual intimacy without shame. I have such a high value of speaking about sex so that the youth in our church culture hear the TRUTH as much (not sure if that's possible) as seeing it from the world's viewpoint. God is very passionate about the issue of sexual intimacy and I believe that He is sounding...
