Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed expenditures made by the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) using 15 million appropriated by the Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 1996, focusing on: (1) whether funds have been spent according to MPDs spending plan; (2) the timeframe involved in spending the funds; and (3) whether the items purchased with the funds were received and distributed to the appropriate offices. GAO noted that: (1) MPD used the funds consistent with their spending plan; (2) three planned and incomplete projects were deferred by the new Chief of Police in June 1998 to allow a new management team to assess law enforcement standards and accreditation requirements for these projects and decide the best method or structure to satisfy those requirements; (3) as a result of the deferrals and because certain items were obtained for less than the budgeted amounts, MPD was able, with the approval of the District of Columbia Financial Responsibility and Management Assistance Authority, to reprogram residual funds to purchase additional bulletproof vests, as well as mountain bikes and associated equipment to address...
