If the Covenanters had not been shot and bayoneted, no theory regarding Church or State would have made them sleep in moss-bogs or fight at Drumclog. What did you think of C. of C. saying, The Lord Jesus Christ will have left the Church when we go ! One of the Rothesay ministers, I am told, said the other day, that the Devil was preparing a cradle in hell for the opposition! Yet I daresay, in a century after this, we shall have some partisan historian writing whining books about these persecuted, self-denying, far-seeing saints, and describing all who oppose them as lovers of the fleece, dumb dogs, and all that trash. To his sister Jane: -- I am very dowie and cast down--not because I am alone, for I love the bachelor life every day more and more, and delight in the independence with which I can rise, eat, read, write when I like!--but this Church of ours is going between me and my sleep. There was a private meeting of our party the day before yesterday at Irvine. All that was done was strictly private but most important; and only think of this--just think of it--that I, Norman Macleod, shall certainly be Obliged to make The move which will beyond a doubt first separate the Church into two parts!! This is in confidence. It is making my head grey. As Strong says, I am this moment the Archbishop of...
